The new sticker replaces the blue and white 1961 sticker. The 1962 edition is black on yellow. All details of the inspection program remain the same:

Each vehicle will be inspected for five things: lights, brakes, windshield wiper on the driver's side, tires, and steering.

BILL ADDING ONE CENT TO POSTAGE PASSES HOUSE

WASHINGTON — The House passed a bill to add one cent to the cost of mailing a letter and raising postage rates for magazines, newspapers and advertising material.

The bill, one of the administration's high priority measures, was passed by voice vote. It now goes to the Senate.

The House added $79.2 million to a rate increase bill worked out by the Kennedy administration and House Democratic leaders, producing a measure that would bring in $700 million if accepted by the Senate. There is some doubt on that score, however.

The bill raises first class and air mail rates by a penny, to 5 and 8 cents, for a total increase in those categories of $455 million. It also calls for $22 million more in the rates paid by newspapers and magazines, $171 million more in third-class rates.

These used mostly by direct mail advertisers and about $20 million more in miscellaneous increases.

All increases would be effective next July 1.

It was in third-class rates the administration got more than it asked for. The administration and the House leadership, in a compromise bill, had asked for third-class increases totaling $93 million, which would have covered about 85 percent of the handling cost of such mail.

Rep. Ken Hechler, D-W. Va., offered an amendment increasing the total to $171 million, covering full cost. A surge of resentment against bulk mail advertising—some called it "junk mail"—carried his proposal by a voice vote.

The Resolution is to name the hospital the "John Elliott Rankin Memorial Veterans Hospital."

Congressman Rankin, of Tupelo, was chairman of the Veterans Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives during his Congressional service from 1921 until 1935. He died in 1930.

MISSISSIPPI BUSINESS REVIEW REPORTS INCREASE OF BUSINESS LEVEL

According to the "Mississippi Business Review" 62 Mississippi cities reported November business activity 30 per cent or more above the 1955-56 level.

The monthly publication of the bureau of business and economic research at Mississippi listed the cities and percentage of gain which included Bay St. Louis, 42 per cent.

day of deer season of our local deer hunters who had a good season this year.

Turkey hunters are awaiting the opening of the season in March and April. According to reports, several turkeys have been seen in the woods of the county.

The St. Stanislaus Rockchaws defeated Bay High 63-55 in the basketball game held Saturday night at the college. Mike Gore with 22 points and Raymond Corr were best scorers for the Rockchaws. Connie Peterson clipped the nets with 20 tallies. Richard Seabster with 17 was outstanding for the losers.

The crayfish (pronounced crawfish) season is at its best in February and March. For those who haven't eaten crayfish, they are a fresh water crustacean which sometimes attain a length of six inches but are usually about three to four inches. They are also called mud bugs and are usually found in shallow, still waters and are caught in small nets baited with meat. The nets are usually triangular shape and are set in the water and taken out with a long pole. They are found mostly in Louisiana in large numbers; however, there are some in Mississippi but are too small to eat and are excellent for green trout and perch bait. They are mostly found in shallow ditches and caught with dip or landing nets. Large crayfish are boiled and eaten like shrimp. Their flavor is superb.

Crayfish are sold along highways in Louisiana and in markets. If you haven't tried crayfish, you have missed a treat.

Deer Kill This Year Higher Than Last Despite Weather

Despite the high water and bad weather conditions during the last November and December hunts Mississippi still shows an increase in deer kill over last year. Hunters killed 9000 deer last year and already reports have been received showing more than 10,000 were killed this year with several counties yet to report.

This did not just so happen without hard work. The continued efforts and cooperation of the sportsmen with your State Game and Fish Commission has enabled Mississippi to have a good supply of deer. This has required hard work, planning and cooperation of all concerned. Deer like all game, require food, water, protection, good habitat, study and prevention of disease and parasites, etc.

Jack A. Warren, Jr., Public Relations Director, states, "John P. Camp, Jr., Executive Director, the Commissioners, Law Enforcement officers, Biologist, managers of refuges and management areas and other personnel with the Game and Fish Commission are continually working to make hunting and fishing still better in Mississippi." This is one business that requires continuous planning.

Your Game and Fish Commission is trapping deer and turkeys now to restock needed areas, building and stocking lakes for future fishing, making population counts on game and fish and hundreds of other things to make fishing and hunting a paradise in Mississippi.

We normally speak of the November and December deer hunts where in reality the December hunt runs on into January. Most of the state deer seasons closed the afternoon of January the first, however, in some few southern counties it ran through January 8, 1962.

Below is a list showing the increase of deer killed over the past eight years in Mississippi:

1954-55 seasons hunters killed 2,364; 1955-56—2,911; 1956-57—3,830; 1957-58—4,201; 1958-59—5,234; 1959-60—7,713; 1960-61—9,989; 1961-62 over 10,000 with several counties with incomplete reports.

The counties reporting the greatest kills this year are Bolivar 1,220; Issaquena 746, incomplete; Claiborne 598; Warren 576, still incomplete returns; Washington 547, incomplete; Greene 409; Wilkinson 376; Kemper 368; Jefferson 356; Perry 294; Noxubee 287; Lauderdale 248 and Red Creek Management area with 309 deer reported killed. These figures were turned into Bill Turcotte, Chief, Game and Fisheries office by deer camp operators, game wardens, warden supervisors and managers of State Wildlife Management areas. State Wildlife Management areas produced a kill of 1237 legal bucks—over 10 per cent of the total of reported deer killed.

Here comes the biggest bargain in your home!
Natural gas is the biggest bargain in your home today. But low-cost, dependable natural gas service doesn't "just happen." Last year, for example, we spent over $50,000,000—an average of more than one million dollars a week—building additional pipeline facilities to keep ahead of the ever-growing demand for natural gas. That's our job—to provide the finest gas service available anywhere to the homes, businesses and industries of the Gulf South.

The first step is the hardest. David needs the encouragement of Daddy's waiting arms. The second step will be easier. Soon David will be skipping about like a lamb.

The first step to Sunday School and church will be another thrilling moment in David's life. This first step will be hard for a shy little boy. David will need the encouragement of Mommy and Daddy. Soon he will be asking to go to Sunday School.

An exciting new world of religious discovery is waiting for your children when they take their first step to church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the life of the individual and the community. It is a source of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four main reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Perhaps the best recommendation for pruning landscape plants is to use a knife or the thimble used to scratch bark. If the shrub is killed all the way down to the trunk or main stems, damage is in the crown and branches, and it will need only a light cut.

If the cambium layer beneath the bark of a trunk, shows discoloration, sign that the plant is being back below the trunk should be cut back to live wood. Any bark which is cracked should be cut back to live wood. Anthony Watson, Althea, Butterfly Bush, 1963. Dues may be sent to the Southern or handed to one of the chapter officers.

A heartening step in CARE experience has been the effort to help feed their own people. Of 27 countries receiving CARE food aid in 1962, the Food Crusade help needy families and groups not covered by such plans.

Evergreen plants as spruce and laurel used by sudden changes in temperature. In the extreme injury is "scorching" of the tips. On narrow-leaved needles are brown when bent.

If there is any doubt and branches have been damaged will be back to live wood. Annual and perennials which have suffered damage will undergo a crippled stage of growth. COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

D. C. SWORDS
County Agent

Perhaps the best general recommendation for pruning ornamental landscape plants is to wait until you are certain of the extent of damage, then prune back to live wood. In some cases, this may be a matter of several weeks after the freeze. When it is evident that extensive damage has been done, the plant should be cut back to live wood. Water all plants thoroughly as soon as pipes thaw. This prevents drying which causes more damage than the cold.

A knife or the thumbnail can be used to scratch back and determine if the shrub has been killed all the way down the main trunk or main stems. Often the damage is in the outside twigs and branches, and the plant will need only a light clipping back.

If the cambium layer, just beneath the bark of the stem or trunk, shows discoloration, this is a sign that the plant needs cutting back below such damage. Any bark which has split or cracked should be removed by cutting below the damage. Grape myrtle, Anthony Waterer Spirea, Althea, Butterfly bush and High-bush Cranberry are among the shrubs which bloom on this year's growth of wood. It is possible to prune this group after a heavy freeze and still have flowers from them in the summer. Tea roses, many of which were in bud, should be pruned to remove dead wood after it is evident. If the rose is of a vigorous variety, it will make sufficient growth during the summer even if it is killed back to the ground.

Evergreen plants as holly, pine, spruce and laurel usually are injured by sudden changes in temperature. In the earliest stages, freeze injury is evident as "scorching" of the leaves at the tips. On narrow-leaf evergreens the needles are browned entirely. The twigs are brittle and snap when bent.

If there is any doubt that twigs and branches have been killed, it is best to wait a few weeks until such damage will be easily seen. At that time, prune the plant back to live wood. Annual and perennial flowers which have suffered cold or frost damage will undergo a dwarfing or crippled stage of growth. Some of them may remain permanently stunted. Such plants should be cut back at the tips, as soon as the extent of cold is recognizable. Any bulbs which were in bloom at the time of the freeze should be left alone until the entire top growth has dried to the ground. Then, dig and cure before replanting.

Effective January 1, 1962 the Livestock Sanitary Board will discontinue payment to veterinarians on a fee basis for official calf vaccinations for brucellosis. Payment for inspection services at specifically approved livestock markets will be discontinued on the same date. The reason for discontinuing

Linda Discards Braces, Crutches; Mother Praises March of Dimes

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dorothy E. Breeze, Young Columbus, Miss., mother of Linda, is a member of the March of Dimes and is a devoted mother.

By DOROTHY E. BREEZE
My little Linda has done far more things in her five years than most people are able to do in an entire lifetime.

As the March of Dimes 1961 National Poster Child, she met President Kennedy in person and rode on a float in his inauguration parade. She starred in an hour-long television program with some of the country's most popular television and movie stars.

Linda has traveled from coast to coast and seen her picture in nearly every newspaper printed. She has autograph books filled with the signatures of celebrities and famous people she has visited.

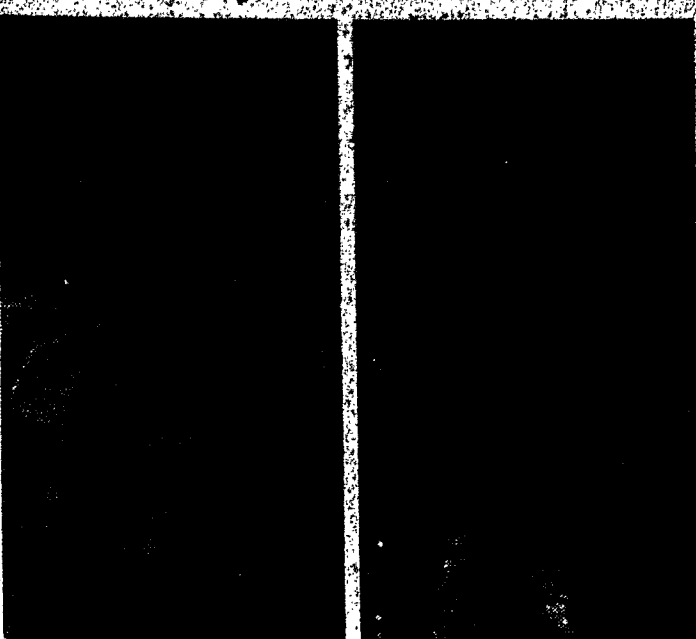

These are just some of the things Linda has done that are beyond the reach of most of us. But the one thing we wanted most for her was something the average person takes for granted—the ability to walk alone and unaided.

There were many times during the years that my husband, Dean, and I thought that Linda would never be able to throw away her braces and crutches. And to be truthful, there were terrifying moments when we feared we might even lose her.

Linda was born with an opening in her spinal column, a condition known medically as spina bifida. As a result, her body was seriously affected from the waist down.

When she was only a few hours old, Linda underwent a delicate operation that partially corrected this condition. The surgery was performed at Children's Hospital in Columbus where, subsequently, The National Foundation with March of Dimes funds established the first of its Birth Defects Clinical Study Centers in 1959.

When she was nine months old, it was found that Linda had water on the brain, which has the medical name of hydrocephalus. This condition was treated by the insertion of a "shunt" tube which drains the excess fluid from the head into the blood stream.

Linda at 23 months after two operations for birth defects. And . . . Linda today, now able to walk without her crutches or leg braces.

You can imagine how much we worried about our little girl in those early days, because we knew she was never far from death. It could have come at any time. After all, 250,000 infants are born in this country each year with a significant birth defect and 21,000 of them die.

But Linda continued to improve. She received specialized treatment at the March of Dimes-supported center. She got her leg braces and crutches. Linda hated them, but she learned to use them.

When, though—if ever—would she be able to run and play with her sister and two older brothers and the other neighborhood children?

The answer to that question depended on Linda, her doctors, the rehabilitation therapists, and us. We all worked together. We worked long, and we worked hard, but it was worth it.

Only the other day, Linda took her first halting steps across our living room without her crutches or leg braces. It was an unforgettable experience. We knew that many other parents of afflicted children are going through similar days of anxiety and heartbreak right now. But we also know that The National Foundation—March of Dimes is looking for the cause and cure of birth defects.

March of Dimes contributions led to the triumph over polio. And I'm a firm believer in the slogan that "Your Dimes Will Do It Again."

Bay High And Purvis To Host Sub-Dist. Tournaments

Bay High and Purvis were selected as sites of the sub-district A-A-A boys and girls tournaments which will be conducted February 6-10. Notre Dame of Biloxi and Hattiesburg will host sub-district B-B-B tournaments on the same dates.

The selections were made at a meeting of District Eight of the Mississippi High School Activities Association Monday night in Wiggins, with Jack Walker of Lumberton presiding.

There will be 15 boys teams and eight girls teams participating in the sub-district A-A-A event at Bay High.

Boys teams entered will be Hancock North Central, Biloxi, Harrison Central, Gulfport, St. Stanislaus, Ocean Springs, Pica-yune, Bay High, Moss Point, d'Arville, Long Beach, Pass Christian, Pearl River Central, Pascagoula and Perkinston.

Girls teams will be Pearl River Central, d'Arville, Ocean Springs, Perkinston, Pass Christian, Hancock North Central, Harrison Central and Bay High.

In the B-B-B sub-district girls' tournament, St. Joseph Academy is the only local team entered.

Four teams in each division will advance to the overall District Eight tournaments, Walker said.

ming of reserve forces of the Army.

Frequent mention continues to be made of "understrength" National Guard units. The fact is, according to the Association, that of all units ordered to active duty to meet the Berlin crisis, 88.3 percent of their personnel reported with their units.

General W. P. Wilson, Adjutant General of Mississippi, adds at this point that Mississippi units answered President Kennedy's call to arms with all ranks filled. One hundred per cent of officers and enlisted personnel of mobilized Mississippi units entered active duty with their respective units.

The Association would like it understood that strength ceilings are fixed by the Department of the Army and influenced by budget. While it is true that mobilized units require several thousand "fillers," this requirement is not the result of the inability of Guard units to recruit and hold greater strength.

The second area in which the National Guard Association feels wrong impressions are being conveyed is in the reported proposed reduction of units of the Army's reserve components. Some have suggested that this idea stems from dissatisfaction with recent mobilization. The Association realized by critics that President Kennedy revealed last May that the Department of Defense would develop plans for greatly increasing the readiness of certain re-

Charcoal Grills In The Home

The use of any kind of charcoal burning grill inside the home can be extremely dangerous. Burning charcoal gives off almost pure carbon monoxide, and when burned indoors or in improperly vented grills, will cause carbon monoxide poisoning. A concentration of 0.015% of carbon monoxide is fatal in slightly more than 60 minutes. For short periods of exposure, the fatal visual may receive severe brain damage due to lack of sufficient oxygen.

In Greece, 180,000 CARE Food Crusade packages are needed this year, to help feed 35,000 destitute families with young children. The $1 packages can be subscribed through CARE, New York 16.

A typical $1 CARE Food Crusade package, for a needy family in Columbia, contains: 10 lbs. corn meal, 5 lbs. macaroni, 1 lb. margarine, 9 lbs. powdered milk (makes 36 quarts). Columbia is one of 17 countries whose people are helped by dollars sent to CARE Food Crusade, New York 16, N.Y.

General Harrison said that the fact that Guard units could be combat ready within a period of 13 weeks proves their effectiveness and is justification for the National Guard program. Given increased training equipment, authorized more personnel, and generally supported by the Federal Government, said Harrison, the Army and Air National Guard could attain in peacetime even higher levels of readiness.

Of the Air National Guard, General Harrison commented that within two weeks after being mobilized, Air Guard Jet Fighter Squadrons flew to Europe and were integrated in the NATO Forces.

Mississippi Cattlemen May Enter Stock-Feeder Calf Show This Year

STATE COLLEGE, MISS.—Mississippi cattlemen can help to build a national reputation for their product by entering calves
in the first Mississippi Stock-Feeder Calf Show and Sale, August 10 and 11 in Jackson.

June 1 is the deadline for nominating entries, according to Frank Brumfield of Inverness, chairman of the event. The one dollar per head entry fee will be applied on sale expenses.

Cattlemen are encouraged to start getting calves selected and ready for this event.

This show and sale will be advertised in leading livestock magazines and newspapers in the Mid-West. Many cattle feeders of that area are expected to attend, and others will learn about it through the news reports that should appear in regional and national mass media, Mr. Brumfield pointed out.

Partially financing this state
show and sale will be the $8,500
allotted by the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board. Additional support is being sought from the state's livestock interests and other businesses.

Classes will be carload lots of 15 and pens of 5 head, both steers and heifers, but shown separately. Weights will be from 300 to 600 pounds.

The premiums include $100 for the first place carload lot and $40 for the first place pens of 5.
This will be the same for each of the Angus, Hereford and Shorthorn breeds.

Crossbred cattle of the English breeds are eligible. The sire of the calf will determine the breed
in which it is shown.

Each exhibitor will be restricted to two entries in any one class.

Following are some of the additional regulations. For full information see the local county agent.

Calves must have been produced by the consignor.

Exhibitors are restricted to Mississippi producers.

All calves must be of high grade or purebred beef type cows and sired by good registered beef bulls.

All calves of the horned breeds must be properly dehorned, and well, by show date.

All male calves must be castrated with knife, and well, by show date.

All calves are to be vaccinated
for blackleg and malignant edema. It is recommended that heifers be vaccinated for Bangs.

Calves will be sold on underweights. Commission charges will be $2.50 per head plus 25 cents yardage. Consignors may either pay feed costs or do their own feeding.

The location will be the north yards of the Mississippi Livestock Producers Association.

MISSISSIPPI INDUSTRIES GROW REPORTED TO GOVERNOR BARNETT

Gov. Ross Barnett receives a personal report on the growth of Mississippi Industries from Warren A. Hood, President. Hood is making the report said that Mississippi Industries now employs more than 500 persons with annual payrolls exceeding $1,500,000. Looking on is Joe Bullock, Director of the A&I Board.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT PRAISED: SALES TO REACH $10,000,000

Governor Ross Barnett Thursday received a personal report on the growth of Mississippi Industries, Inc., a stock company organized in August, 1960, which now operates ten manufacturing plants employing 500 persons with annual payrolls of over $1,500,000.

Making the presentation in the governor's office was Warren A. Hood, young president and chairman of the executive committee of Mississippi Industries, who said
the various subsidiaries expect to sell $10,000,000 worth of products in 1962.

Mississippi Industries, with its ten subsidiaries, distributes or manufactures ethical phar-maceuticals, Victorian furniture, asphalt shingle and building felt, storage tanks and hoppers and bins, buff bricks, charcoal briquets, refrigerated truck bodies, roof deck materials, potting soils and soil conditioners, wood pallets and janitorial supplies.

"When you became governor
you embarked, as you had pledged, on a campaign to bring a new industrial era to Mississippi," Mr. Hood told the governor. "With the cooperation of the Legislature,
you enacted an industrial Bill of Rights which provided for gradual reduction in income taxes, funds for research, a program for industrial parks,

and incorporation of the right
to work law into the state constitution. All of these measures have been important to us in the development of industry and I can assure you that the Barnett Era has enabled manufacturers to operate economically and compete for markets under favorable conditions and in a healthy industrial climate."

Mr. Hood said the MII operations have over $3,000,000
invested in land; buildings, machinery and equipment and nearly $2,000,000 worth of raw materials are purchased annually in Mississippi.

Five local communities have floated BAWI bond issues totaling $800,000 to construct buildings for MII plants.

Governor Barnett said he was "thrilled" to receive such a report.

"I have been dedicated to the expansion of our economy
with new payrolls," the governor said, "and I am delighted that your company with its subsidiaries is carrying out this program under our great system of free enterprise."

"I want to give you my personal congratulations for
operation of the Legislature,
your industrial achievements
of the past eighteen months
and I am confident that you and your associates will continue to set the pace for industrial development."

Companies now operated by
MII include Arnd Laboratories,
Jackson; Atlas Roofing Manufacturing Company, Meridian;
Atlas Tank Manufacturing Co., Vicksburg; Atlas Tile and Brick Company, Shuqualaba;
Dizzy Dean Enterprises, Pa-
chuta; Dryden Manufacturing Company, Amory; Fireproof
Products Company, Terry; Max
Muller & Company, Jackson;
Morton Manufacturing Company, Morton; and Natchez Reproductions, Inc., Natchez.

ONE-THIRD OF MISSISSIPPI'S TOTAL INCOME GOES FOR FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TAXES

Hancock County's share of the President's proposed $92.5 billion federal budget for fiscal 1963 is $2,850,850, the Mississippi State
Chamber of Commerce-MEC estimates.

The organization said it bases
the figures on the fact that an established economic index, the one used by the State Department of Education in administering the school program, shows the county to bear .87 per cent of the total tax burden in Mississippi. The State, according to an index accepted nationally, is estimated to pay 0.46 per cent of the total federal tax bill. This means Mississippi's share of the proposed $92.5 billion federal spending program
would be $425.5 million.

"Mississippi's total income, figured at $1,173 per capita, is $2.5
billion annually," the State Chamber said. "When you add local and state government taxes levied upon citizens, $283,300,000, to the cost of the proposed federal budget, you get a total cost of $708.8 million. The state and local tax figure is for the year 1960,

the latest available.

"This $708.8 million represents almost one-third of Mississippi's
total income, and some historians and economists claim when any government takes over one-third of its citizens income, the nation is beyond the point-of-no-return on the road to socialism. If this be true, we are certainly on the borderline."

The State Chamber said it breaks the cost of the proposed budget down to the state and county level in order that citizens will have a better idea of what federal spending costs them.

"Flower Drum Song" Title Effects Created By Renowned Artist

One of the most elaborate of all screen title treatments was prepared for the spectacular screen color version of the Rodgers and Hammerstein Broadway musical hit, "Flower Drum Song," starring Nancy Kwan, James Shigeta, Miyoshi Umeki and Yamanaka. The title effects, created by the artist, were shown Thursday at the Legion Theatre, Gulfport.

A Chinese-American painter of international acclaim, Dong Kingman, Oakland-born son of a laundryman, was commissioned to create a special series of original paintings which are used as backgrounds for the title cards.

Since the artist has won virtually every top painted award in the country, with his canvasses owned by more than 80 top museums, his works provide one of the most impressive one-man exhibits ever to reach the screen.

Kingman's drawings not only set the mood for "Flower Drum Song," but also lead into the story itself, beginning with scenes in Hong Kong streets and concluding with a watercolor of a ship passing beneath the Golden Gate Bridge at San Francisco. The latter painting comes to life on the screen, picking up in live-action the story the artist has put in pigments.

Produced by Ross Hunter, in association with Joseph Fields, who wrote the screenplay, "Flower Drum Song" also stars Jack Soo and Benson Fong, and has a dozen of the renowned Rodgers and Hammerstein song hits in 17 musical sequences. Directed by Henry Koster, the Universal-International release's music was supervised and conducted by Alfred Newman.

RICE ANNIVERSARY RECIPE QUEEN

Charleston, S. C.—The growing of rice in America reached its 275th anniversary year with appropriate recognition in the city where rice was first planted in 1688.

With the Rice Council of Houston, Texas, as sponsor of the event, Charleston staged a pageant re-enacting the historical event when a ship's captain brought less than a bushel of rice seed to the Carolina colony.

The seed was planted by an early settler and from this beginning the great rice plantations of the Carolinas and Georgia were founded. Later the rice industry moved westward to Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi and California.

This year's rice crop is estimated at 5 1/2 billion pounds.

Among the features of the observance recognizing rice as the oldest non-native American food crop, was a contest among homemakers of Charleston and the South Carolina lowcountry.

275th Rice Anniversary-Price-Winning Recipe

Recipe: Sauté onion and peppers in bacon fat, or fry onion and peppers in sausage fat with 1/4 cup water. Add tomatoes, tomato paste, seasonings, rice and meat. Cover tightly and cook slowly for 30 minutes. Add 1 medium green pepper, removing seeds. When rice is done, stir pepper with milk and "bake" in a hot oven. Add 1/4 cup of water with soy sauce and 1/4 cup of oil. The rice will be sticky and moist. Boiled string beans can be substituted for the bacon or sausage.

New Arthritis Test By March of Dimes

A new and sensitive blood test for diagnosing rheumatoid arthritis in children was one of the medical achievements of 1961 highlighted by The National Foundation in a year-end review of progress by March of Dimes-supported scientists.

The report by Dr. Thomas M. Rivers, vice president for medical affairs of the Foundation, cited accomplishments related to birth defects, virus diseases, polio and genetics as well as arthritis.

Dr. Rivers also noted that 1961 will be memorable because of the licensing by the U.S. Government of two of the three component types of Salk oral polio vaccine which, like the Salk killed-virus vaccine, was developed with money given to the March of Dimes.

The new arthritis test was developed by Dr. Morris Ziff and his research associates at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School in Dallas. In their studies, the test proved positive in 76 per cent of children with rheumatoid arthritis. By contrast, other tests currently in use seldom pinpoint the disease in more than 20 per cent of youngsters known to have it, according to Dr. Rivers.

Dr. Rivers pointed out that few people realize how very serious rheumatoid arthritis can be in children, or how frequently it is among them. It is estimated that there are about 30,000 children under 15 in the U.S. who have it, many of whom are severely crippled, he said.

It is also suspected many other youngsters may have the disease, with perhaps only minor or vague pains and no clear-cut symptoms to label arthritis as the culprit.

The arthritis test, which is particularly sensitive in detecting an unusual blood factor frequently found in persons with rheumatoid arthritis, may fill its greatest role in uncovering undiagnosed rheumatic disease in children.

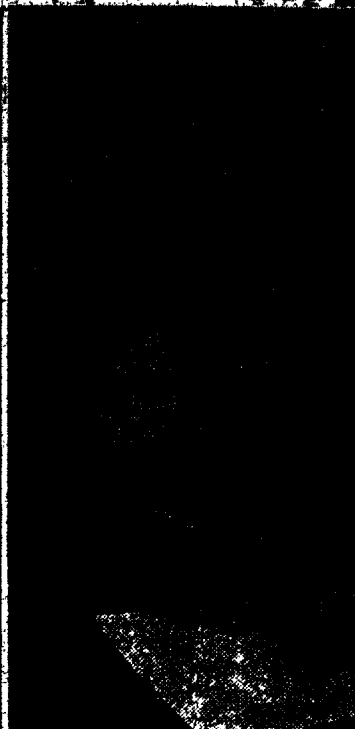

The test is vitally important, because the earlier diagnosis is made and treatment started, the better the chances for prevention of disability in young victims of the disease.

A second scientific achievement highlighted in The Foundation's year-end review was a special field study which disclosed that a great many birth defects are not detectable in early life but may remain hidden until infants reach the age of one or two.

This report was made by a research team headed by Dr. Frank R. Lock of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, Winston-Salem, N.C.

Among the other developments singled out in the March of Dimes research progress report were the following:

1. Dr. Joseph L. Melnick of Baylor University has come up with two chemical discoveries that promise major improvements in the manufacture of oral polio vaccines. It had previously been necessary to keep

To determine whether or not the has rheumatoid arthritis, Dr. Rivers tested blood samples at a March of Dimes-supported clinic. Each year 30,000 children are checked.

such vaccines in deep freeze until just a few days before use. With the new chemical treatment, however, they can be kept at room temperature for as long as a month. The second chemical improvement removes undesirable viruses that contaminate the vaccine at certain stages of preparation.

2. A new radioactive method of detecting how viruses are formed inside cells was reported by Dr. Councilman Morgan and associates at Columbia University. Another group of workers at the University of Michigan described similar results with techniques involving use of fluorescent materials.

3. Additional evidence that one of the intestinal viruses may also cause an infectious heart disease, sometimes fatal in infants, has been obtained by Dr. George Dempster and colleagues at the University of Saskatchewan.
